(WJBF) — A local teen says he's using "hope you die" type text messages to warn his exgirlfriend's classmates. Alex Salter, 18, was arrested on Tuesday and charged with stalking and cyberstalking. According to police, Salter, of Robbinsville, began sending the threats to his ex-girlfriend on March 1 and continued to do so on March 4. "I like to chase her down or follow her and say, 'Oh, so you're cheating on me with him," said Salter. Salter said he has a long history of mental illness and had not been taking his medication. "There's only one person that knows what's going on inside my head, and that's my brother," he said. "I've never had a great relationship with my parents. My dad's not a good parent, but my mom's a great mom." In court, Salter said that he sent the threats through text messages, not social media. "I thought it would be fun," he said. "I didn't think it would be a big deal, but it is a big deal." Salter was arrested and booked into the Cherokee County Detention Center. The victim, who did not want to be identified, told WJBF she is terrified. "I didn'
