A: Try to fix broken links in this list with your website address: Q: How is it possible to reduce the layout height of the row android? I have an android app layout: Here, I want to create a ListView with the ListView height being less than that of the RelativeLayout containing the ListView. If I reduce the height in the ListView layout xml, it goes down ok, but it is not scrollable. I want to make it scrollable. I have tried setting a specific height for the ListView's parent, but it does not help. Please help me with this. A: Try setting android:scrollbars="vertical" told them it was a sample of our art work." ""I think you will recognize it when you see it."" "I thought I would recognize it." "I couldn't." "So they gave me no choice, and I was released." "That is amazing." "I'm so sorry." "Liz:" "Would you like some water?" "I can make some tea or..." "Do you like a scotch on
